Hello and welcome to your library orientation! My name is Micah Walsleben and I’m a Reference Librarian at Lubbock’s Preston Smith Library of the Health Sciences. I am excited to be your guide today as we explore the resources the library has to offer you during your time as a student here.
When accessing the library website and its resources from your computer at home, it is highly recommended that you stick to using Chrome. Internet Explorer doesn’t support all of the technology we have on the library website, and we have had some reports of access issues as a result; also, TTUHSC I.T. has ended support for Firefox.
Available on 2\textsuperscript{nd} floor of library, across from the Learning Resource Center and public computers

8am–5pm
Monday–Friday

These are the Reference Librarians at the Lubbock campus. If you are located at the TTUHSC campuses in Abilene, Dallas, Mineral Wells, or are a distance student, please remember that the Lubbock library is your contact point for any research assistance. Our office hours are Monday – Friday 8:00am – 5:00pm Central Time. Feel free to give us a call or send us an e-mail! We will be happy to help you.
Orientation Presentations:

- Introduction: Who we are, where we’re located, library account
- Library Overview: explore the library website, facility information
- Searching Basics: learning about structuring a search question, Boolean operators, etc. with examples using the CINAHL interface
- Databases: an introduction to searching CINAHL, Nursing Reference Center Plus, Pepid, Joanna Briggs Institute, and Micromedex
- Online Multimedia/Mobile Resources: discover the mobile versions of databases and tools available and explore Anatomy.Tv and Netter Reference
- Getting Help: learn how you can contact the library from anywhere with Ask A Librarian and TeamViewer
This is the library website, along with the URL address. I recommend bookmarking this page to help you access our resources quickly and easily. Because our resources require you to log in from off campus, it’s best to bookmark the main page rather than any specific resource.

Log in with your eRaider username and password. Once you do, you’ll see a section labeled “Personal Details”. Fill that out, and that’s it! One thing to bear in mind is that there is an actual human being on the library’s end who processes the accounts, so it may take a day or two before your account is truly up and ready to use. If you need to order something immediately, forgot to set up your account, and can’t wait that long, please call 806-743-2200 and explain your situation – someone should be able to help you.
